

Following are images of High Street Den (Photos courtesy of Derek Cowie)

The decorating of the interior was carried out by the Venture Scouts and Brian Cowie, Derek's brother.

Moving further round to the right, there is the list of Queens Scouts; the picture of the first Scout Troop in 1921, and the lists of leaders over the years

Through the "Friendship Dow" to the Rovers Room, with the kitchen in the background.

The flag (top left) was procured from the Jubilees Camp - 1969.

Note: The flag (top left) has been well maintained and everyone attending the Centenary Displays in the Church Halls will see it in all its glory in the 'Camp Display Hall'.

"THE SHIP"

Inspired by the 'Cathachmasa' - Glasgow
B. Lowe built this in May/June 1971.

The pennants that have been collected over the years together with maps showing recent summer camp sites.

Note: The pennants have been well maintained and everyone attending the Centenary Displays in the Church Halls will see them in all their glory in the 'Camp Display Hall'.

The stairs that led to the Gods!!

The flagpole with one or two momentos on the table. The felling axe in the background was presented to our Troop by the Hadeslew boys at our Jubilee Camp.

Finally the flag that was presented to the Group Scout leader, Alex Herrie
on the occasion of the Jubilee Dinner Dance

Below is a photograph of a presentation at the Renfrew YMCA building in 1977. The interest to the Scouts is the gentleman 2nd left back row is Ernie Spiers, referred to in Alex Harvie`s note shown above. Also 3rd from right back row is Ian Barrall a member of the Scouts. The last person on the back row is Brian Cowie who was responsible for decorating the High Street den. Some of his work is show above.

I thoroughly enjoyed the research and reminiscences in connection with writing this booklet and I hope that if you're reading it as an ex-Trinity Scout who enjoyed using the dens, you have been able to relive your experiences; if you're reading it having not been in our ranks, I hope you realised what a great time we had, how much we learned and the great camaraderie which existed.

Yours in Scouting and with every best wish to 2nd Renfrew on the celebration of their Centenary in November 2021
